

Situational Awareness Bulletin

From the Mayor's Office of Emergency Preparedness

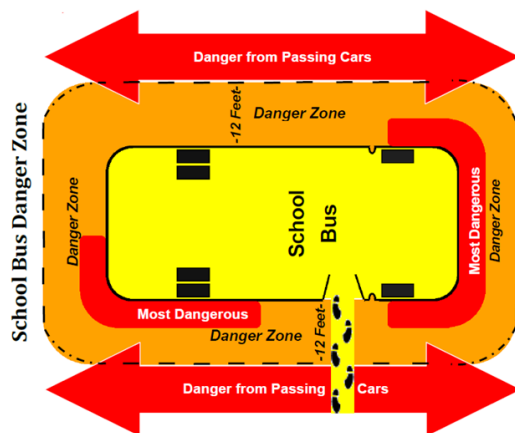

BACK TO SCHOOL SAFETY TIPS

It's that time of year again parents! Very soon your kids will be heading back to school! Here are some safety tips to help make this school year less stressful.

- ✓ Remember to learn your child's school emergency plan whether its for their school, college or day care.
- ✓ Remember to practice what to do in emergencies with your children regularly, you can never be too prepared.
- ✓ Make sure your children have their emergency contacts memorized or written down in a safe place.
- ✓ Always obey the speed limit around school zones and be wary of children crossing the street.
- ✓ Remember to obey all school bus instructions such as stopping when the bus loads and unloads children.
- ✓ Look both ways before crossing the street.

| ICE In Case of Emergency | |
|---|---|
|  | Name: Jenny McBride |
|  | ICE Contact: Sarah McBride / Mommy |
|  | Mobile: 98786-5689 |
| | Address: 300 Boylston Ave. E Seattle WA 98102 |
| | Allergies: Peanuts |
| | Medical Conditions: Asthma |
| | Medical Aid: Peanuts Allergy - Epinephrine Autoinjector |
| | (ASTHMA)-ProAir HFA inhalation |
| | Blood Type: O+ |

Images: www.atlantapublicschools.us/transportation, www.wikihow.com

Please contact the Office of Emergency Preparedness at COAEmergencyPrep@atlantaga.gov if you have additional questions.