

A blurred background image of the Fulton County Courthouse, a large white building with a central dome and classical architectural features.

ATTENTION ALL RESIDENTS OF FULTON COUNTY

LOCAL OPTION SALES TAX (LOST)

TOWN HALL

Wednesday
September 28
7:00 p.m.

Georgia International Convention Center
2000 Convention Center Concourse
College Park, GA 30337

Join us for a Town Hall on the Local Option Sales Tax (LOST), which represents revenue of over $3 billion over the next ten years. The Mayors from South Fulton cities are confirmed to participate in a panel discussion on LOST and its potentially dramatic effect on our communities. All Fulton County Commissioners have been invited to participate in this important opportunity for dialogue with citizens.

Panel Participants will include the Mayor/ Representative of:

- Chattahoochee Hills
- College Park
- East Point
- Fairburn
- Hapeville
- Palmetto
- South Fulton
- Union City
- North Fulton Cities

Panel Moderator:

- Kiplyn Primus, Host of "The Local Take" on Jazz 91.9 WCLK

Ultimately, the final decision on LOST funding will have a dramatic impact on all residents of Fulton County, including the residents of the 15 cities within the county.