

OPEN COURT

A City of Atlanta Department of Parks and Recreation Publication Volume 3 | Issue 1 | January 2023

A Message from the Deputy Commissioner

Doug Voss

Welcome to the first edition of Open Court for 2023. Although the weather has been colder than normal for the Atlanta area, the Department of Parks and Recreation is steadily working on several initiatives for the new year.

First, the department will be switching to a new online reservations' platform beginning in February.

The new program is widely used by tennis centers across the country and should work well for City of Atlanta facilities. Additional information about the program is available in this issue of the newsletter, but also please feel free to send any questions or comments to our staff's addresses listed in the contact section as needed.

Second, on Tuesday, January 17, the City of Atlanta released a Request for Information (RFI) to industry professionals. All professionals should refer the City of Atlanta's Department of Procurement website for additional information on how to participate. The public is also encouraged to participate via an online survey. <http://bit.ly/3ZSQbHq>

Survey information will be sent to many tennis center participants available on our mailing list, but the survey can also be found on city's webpage under the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The public is also encouraged to participate via an on-line survey. Information will be sent to tennis center participants available on our mailing list.

All surveys are due by Friday, February 17.

We look forward to serving you in 2023, especially as we look forward to warmer weather.

Wishing you a happy, healthy New Year.

New Year, New System!

In February, we will announce our newest tennis portal that will soon replace Playtomic. Stay tuned!
