

Greg Clay, MPA, Executive Director

A native of Atlanta, Greg Clay was appointed by the Honorable Mayor Andre Dickens to serve as the Executive Director of Constituent Services in February 2023. Mr. Clay joined the city of Atlanta after serving as a nonprofit leader, community advocate, and longtime local government practitioner. As a community leader he serves on numerous boards focused on education, community resources, and youth-driven programming. Among many awards, he has been recognized as a 40 Under Forty Awardee by the Atlanta Business Chronicle, a Whitney Young Award Recipient by the Atlanta Area Council of Boy Scouts of America, and the M.L.K. Jr. Presidential Drum Major for Service Award by the President of the United States of America. Greg is an alumnus of Outstanding Atlanta, LEAD Atlanta and the New Leaders Council. He graduated from Florida A & M University with a degree in Business Administration and received his M.P.A. from the top-ranked University of Kansas, School of Public Affairs and Administration. His priorities for the department include the successful execution of Neighborhood & Community Engagement, Department Operations, Resource Development, Communication & Branding, and Programming, building trust across neighborhoods.